DOLE WANTS MORE LIGHT

SHARKEY IS FULL OF FIGHT

WILL POST $5,000 FORFEIT AND ISSUE CHALLENGE TODAY.

Jeffries' Manager, Brady, Doesn't Believe Sharkey Is Entitled to a Match-Next Fight in Paris.

New York, Nov. 5.—Thomas Sharkey, in pain and injured in a plaster support, spent today quietly in his quarters. He was constantly attended by his physicians, who ordered him to be absolutely quiet. The defeated pugilist was resolute and uncomfortable till a sleeping powder had been administered. Then he fell into a deep sleep, which lasted all afternoon.

The burden of Sharkey's talk was that he wanted to meet Jeffries again. The champion, on the other hand, while declaring that he was in the hands of his managers, asserted his own willingness to grant the sailor his desire, though he did not see why he should be expected to do so.

"But you know," he said, "there is such a thing as being driven to a fight."

Sharkey said that he wanted another fight in eight weeks and was going to post $5,000 forfeit tomorrow. O'Rourke, his manager, said he was doing his best to bring the match about.

"Tomorrow morning early," O'Rourke said, "I am going to post with George Connolly a $5,000 forfeit for Sharkey to get a return with Jeffries. It will be a bet as well as a challenge. Sharkey may be able to get a fight at the end of eight weeks. I think, however, that the period is too short, and I will name for some time as the time I don't know whether Jeffries and his manager will cover this or not, but we will leave it to the general public to decide how far our position is. Jeffries owes it to Sharkey and the public to give us another match. We are in earnest about this. Sharkey feels he is the better man and he ought to have a fair chance to try it."

Brady said, when asked about a return match: "What I have determined is this: Jeffries needs a rest. He would have been a great deal better off early in the fight if he had been recovered from his fight with Fitzsimmons. He has licked Sharkey twice. I think it will be a fair fight. Jeffries has another fight, and my impression is that it will take place in Paris."

Contents Postponed.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The six-round contests between Terry McGovern and Patsy Haley and McGovern and "Turkey Point" Billy Smith of Philadelphia, which were to have taken place Tuesday night at Tattersall's, have been postponed on account of the inability to secure the building for that date.

TO REPRESENT WHEELMEN.

American Cyclists Will Have a Headquarters at Paris.

New York, Nov. 5.—Paul Oskar of Paris, who is on his way to California, has accepted the offer of L. A. W. Council for France. Mr. Oskar will be in charge of the American cyclists' headquarters at the Paris exposition next year. He will be in charge of the American cyclists' headquarters at the Paris exposition next year.

CRIMES OF ST. LOUIS MAN

KILLED HIS WIFE AND THEN COMMITTED SUICIDE.

His Wife's Parents He Beat Into Insensitivity With a Gun and the Mother-in-law May Die.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—George Barthell, a foreman in the wholesale house of the Summers Hardware company, today fired a shot which killed his wife and then killed himself. Barthell had been separated from his wife for four years and during the time he had made repeated requests that she return to him, but to no avail.

This afternoon Barthell walked into the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohlfing, with a revolver in each hand and, without saying a word, he fired a shot at his wife. The ball went wide and Mrs. Barthell fled from the room. Barthell then knocked Rohlfing senseless with the butt of his revolver. Mrs. Rohlfing endeavored to protect her husband, and in the struggle received a broken bottle across the head, causing mortal wounds, and one in the arm. Barthell stood over his wife's fallen form for an instant, as if to satisfy himself that she was dead, and then blew out his brains. At a late hour tonight Mr. and Mrs. Rohlfing had not recovered consciousness and Mrs. Barthell was reported dying.

NEGROES RAMPANT.

Escape From Stockade and Commit Depredations.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 5.—In spite of the vigilance of Superintendent Vail, a band of negroes got out of the stockade at midnight. At this morning and again started toward town. On arriving near nine o'clock they stationed themselves in a railroad cut and began firing into houses over the hill. One house was riddled with bullets and the family had to flee to the floor to escape.

There is no lack of volunteers to assist the sheriff, and wholesale arrests are looked for.

HELD UP ELECTRIC CAR.

Lone Robber In Portland Secures a Few Dollars.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 5.—Last night about midnight a lone highway man held up a Willamette Heights electric car near the western end of the line.
The conductor and motorman were the only persons on the car. The highway man covered them with a rifle and compelled them to hand over their money, amounting to $12, and their wallets. He then started toward the woods.

HAWAIIAN GOVERNMENT'S IN-QUIRY OF SECRETARY GRIGGS

Asks What Must Be Done With British Claims—Other Questions To Be Passed Upon.

Honolulu, Oct. 27 (via San Francisco, Nov. 5).—The Hawaiian government has sent by the steamer China a request for certain other information respecting the letter and opinion of Attorney General Griggs respecting British claims in connection with the 1893 revolution here.

The instructions, if such they may be called, received by the steamer America Maru, appear rather vague. President Dole does not construe the letter to be instructions, strictly speaking.
No direction is given as to what sort of settlements are to be made, when they shall be made, nor how they shall be made.

In referring the latter back to the Hawaiian government, the letter states that they are re-submitted "for consideration and action." The question is how far does that go? Does it mean settlement on a basis of Attorney General Griggs' reasoning, which is general in character, or does it leave the matter entirely in the hands of Hawaii to do as it pleases about it, the United States holding to its former policy of having absolutely nothing to do with the question.

President Dole thinks the matters are again entirely in the hands of the local government, and practically the old basis. There are others, however, who think as the matters were taken up years ago as the subject of diplomatic correspondence between Hawaii and Great Britain, they are pending in much the same attitude, that of following annexation, they must become a matter between Washington and London.

Marshall Brown's petition for a writ of mandamus against the collector general of customs to compel the registration of the Falls of Clyde will go before the supreme court, despite the proclamation of President McKinley forbidding the further registration of vessels under the Hawaiian flag. The recent decision of the circuit court to the petitioner the rights prayed for.
At that moment the president's proclamation came in. The collector general is now between the judgment of the court and the president's proclamation.

The appeal is taken by Attorney General Cooper to settle the precedent.
It is necessary for the proclamation to be on record in the case. It will then be for the court to decide whether it is necessary for the proclamation to be on record in the case. It will then be for the court to decide whether it is necessary for the proclamation to be on record in the case.

Alexander Young was this afternoon appointed minister of the interior to succeed Captain James A. King.
